Andean Experience - 3 nights in Lima, 2 nights in Lake Titicaca

Enjoy the best of Peru tourism in Lima, a city full of rich flavors, unique experiences, and the magical union of the past and the present. Spend three nights in The Atemporal Hotelito. Housed in a 1940s mansion in the chic Miraflores district of Lima, this nine-room Hotelito is conceived as the home of a globetrotting freelance photographer. At an altitude of more than 3,800 meters in the Andes, on the border between Peru and Bolivia, this cradle of Inca civilization is still home to one of the oldest communities in South America. Titilaka Lodge is tucked away in this unique landscape, totally off the beaten track on its own private peninsula. The rooms, each with a splendid lake view, are decorated in a contemporary style with touches of local heritage. Responsible, sustainable development is at the heart of Titilaka's philosophy; more than 90% of staff are locals and the property sources food locally as much as possible, while its business model focuses on conserving Andean traditions. Included daytime activities range from exploring Inca and pre-Inca ruins, to visiting the floating reed islands of the Uros people, to leisurely hiking or biking through stunning Andean scenery. The two-night full board package includes breakfast, 3 course lunches, and 5 course dinners.

After this, it's up to you. We highly recommend spending a couple nights in Cusco and then embarking on the 3-day hike along the Inca Trail to Machu Picchu. Truly an unforgettable experience!
